THE RIGHT REVEREND DANIEL WILSON, D.D.,
LATE LORD BISHOP OF CALCUTTA.

MESSRS. SEELEY, JACKSON, and HALLIDAY are preparing to issue an Uniform Edition of the Complete Works of the late Daniel Wilson, D.D., Lord Bishop of Calcutta.

If any words were necessary to introduce this proposition to the Clergy and Laity of the Church of England, the following testimony, borne by the Lord Bishop of Winchester, may be quoted as conclusive of the literary value to be attached to the late Bishop's Works:—

"As a Writer, he stands in the first rank. His vast intellectual powers enabled him to seize hold of the prominent and essential points, and thrusting aside inferior matter, to bring his mind to bear with concentrated force on what was really important. He had no eye for natural scenery, and rarely employed imagery or illustration. Strength is the staple of his writings."—(From the Sermon preached at St. Mary's, Islington, February 14th, 1858.)

The Works of the late Bishop of Calcutta consist of—

Sermons preached at St. John's Chapel, Bedford Row;
Introductory Essays; Sermons on Public Occasions;
Funeral Sermons; Sermons preached in India;
The External and Internal Evidences of Christianity;

Expository Lectures on the Colossians;
Lectures on the Lord's Day;
Lectures on the Atonement;
Diocesan Charges.

The whole of the foregoing Works will be brought into eight volumes, crown 8vo., handsomely printed in a clear type, and bound in cloth.

Four volumes will be issued in the course of the approaching summer, and the whole publication will be completed before the close of the present year.

The price to Subscribers will be Two Pounds Eight Shillings for the Eight Volumes, of which One Pound is payable on the entry of the Subscriber's name, and the remainder before the delivery of the last issue, of which notice will be given.

As only a limited number will be printed, the names of those who are desirous of possessing this complete Edition of the Works of the late eminent Bishop of Calcutta should be sent in immediately to the Publishers, or through any Bookseller in Town or Country.

54, Fleet-street, March, 1858.

The Principles of Elocution,

Compiled from the Elements of Rhetoric, by

The ARCHBISHOP OF DUBLIN,

With additions and alterations under the personal supervision of His Grace.

That this little Work may be of service in exhibiting and impressing the true principles of Elocution, and so aiding the student to express his thoughts "clearly, forcibly, and agreeably," after a simple and natural manner, has been the desire and aim of the Compiler. (From the Preface.)
